United States and County Official Paper

St. Helens, September 9, 1892.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

John G. Whittier, the poet, died at Hampton Falls, N. H., Wednesday.

Mrs. Dr. Cliff and Miss Lena Blakely are spending a few days at Bunker Hill.

Mr. Wm. H. Dolman is stocking up complete in all lines of general merchandise this fall.

Sheriff Masie made an official visit to the lower end of the county Tuesday.

License to wed were issued by the clerk Saturday to W. R. Dodson and Carrie L. Bee.

Don't fail to attend the lecture in the Odd Fellows hall tomorrow evening, commencing promptly at 8.

State Treasurer A. A. Lindley, of Washington, passed through town on Monday, en route to his Lewis river ranch.

Swager has just received a fine assortment of ladies', gents' and children's shoes, which he is selling very down.

Boots and shoes of every description at Swager's. Call and inspect his fine stock, which he is selling cheap for cash.

A. Nevin, of Goble, was in town Monday on business connected with the estate of John Farrow and H. S. Mitchell.

Mrs. A. J. Rubert returned home from San Francisco, where she has been visiting for several weeks, on Tuesday last.

M. S. Dailey, the house mover, this week moved the residence of Captain F. A. Lamont several feet back from the sidewalk, thereby adding to the appearance of that corner.

Mrs. A. C. Archbold, of Hillsboro, and Grandma Wilcox, of Portland, were the guests of the editor this week. They returned home on Tuesday.

Rev. A. B. Wade, of the Christian church, Hillsboro, has been holding services in St. Helens this week. The attendance has been very good, and the lessons laid down are of the highest order.

It is thought that the railroad companies will reduce the passenger rate to the world's fair to one fare for the round trip, and a conference was held in Chicago Tuesday to consider the advisability of this step.

FURNITURE FOR SALE.—Three complete bedroom sets, one bed lounge, table, heating stove, cook stove with utensils, chairs, etc., all new, will be sold cheap. Apply at once at this office.

Professor Looney intends soon to open a night school in St. Helens for the benefit of those who are unable to attend the day school, and all branches will be taught, including French and German. Notice of commencement will be given later.

Mrs. J. R. Beagle, of Gillton, received news last week of the death of her father, Reuben Searcy, at Hainesville, Mo., at the age of 93 years. His life has been one of usefulness, he having been a Baptist minister for a great many years during his younger life. He raised a large family of children, who are now scattered far and wide over the United States.

Everything quiet on the water front. The grand old Columbia reflects back the twinkling green willow on its glossy bosom. Seals and salmon eye each other at long range, through the crystal waters. And the largest, finest lot of ladies' plain and trimmed jackets ever in Columbia county, is to be seen at Dolman's counter during this week only.

Governor Penoyer Tuesday granted pardons to Samuel Doane and Thomas Kearney, the pardons being recommended by the district attorney. Doane was sentenced from Umatilla county December 20, 1883, to serve a life sentence for murder in the second degree. Kearney's crime was robbery. He was sentenced in March, 1891, from Clatsop county to serve a term of five years.

Many years' practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents in all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured a large number of patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

In another column will be found the "ad" of F. W. Miller, seedman, of Portland. Mr. Miller has been in the seed and fruit tree business in Portland for years, and has shipped a great deal of goods into Columbia county. His reputation for square dealing is above reproach, and his goods are always just what he represents them to be. Unlike a certain other seed firm in Portland, his word can always be relied upon.

W. S. Alderson, who was arrested in Portland some time ago, charged with having abducted Miss May Newman, of Fossil, was married to the girl this week. In substance, the young couple ran away from Fossil some weeks ago and went to Port Townsend, Wash., where a marriage license was procured, but before they had time to have the ceremony performed the irate father, who was in hot pursuit, overtook them and brought them to Portland. Alderson was placed in jail and the 14-year-old girl taken home. After reconsidering matters the parents consented to the match, hence the marriage. Alderson is the son of Rev. Alderson, a former pastor of the church in St. Helens, and is considered a worthy young man. But the objection was raised on account of the girl's age.

The latest in the journalistic arena is the proposed establishment of a magazine out at Bunker Hill, this county. The name of the new paper will be "A Radical Review," and it's editors are J. H. Morris and M. S. Liden. A prospectus of the paper will be issued next week, but the regular editions will not be out before November or December. It is to contain about thirty pages, and will be of a strictly literary character, published monthly. The plant consisting of types, presses and other material arrived here Wednesday.

Rev. A. B. Wade, of the Christian church, will deliver a lecture in the Odd Fellows hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening, on the subject of "Why I am an Odd Fellow." The lecture will be a public one, and will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. Every one should be on hand at the beginning, as brother Wade's lectures are very interesting throughout. The lodge, as well as the speaker, will be pleased to see a good attendance; and do not forget the fact that you are all invited.

School opened in St. Helens Monday with Professor J. P. Looney in charge. There are quite a number of pupils from outside districts enrolled, and the attendance to begin with is very encouraging. The hearty cooperation of the parents is all that is required to make the term a success.

Jared Wilson, of Rainier, made proof on his claim before Clerk Quick, Wednesday, with J. B. Doan and Joseph Hockenberry as witnesses. On the same day Joseph Hockenberry made proof on his claim with Jared Wilson and J. B. Doan as witnesses.

All those desirous of organizing a Sunday school in St. Helens are requested to meet at the church next Sunday at 3 o'clock for that purpose. It is hoped that the citizens will take an interest in this matter and endeavor to be present.

Miss Susie Holcomb, who has been visiting the Misses Way, returned to her home in Portland on Wednesday.

DEATH OF M. B. MASON.

Run over by the Northern Pacific Train—The Jury's Verdict.

We are sorry to announce the death of Mr. M. B. Mason, at Houlton, on Thursday evening of last week. Mr. Mason was crossing on the railroad bridge at the above place when the north-bound Northern Pacific passenger train approached. Whether or not the train whistled to warn the unfortunate man of danger or not, there is a difference of opinion; but before the last approaching train could be brought to a standstill it struck Mr. Mason, throwing him violently against the frame work of the bridge, killing him almost instantly. A coroner's jury was at once summoned and Justice Blakesley officiated. Mr. Mason is an old resident of Oregon and well known in Columbia county. He lived at St. Johns for a number of years, at which place the remains were taken for interment on Friday last. He leaves in this county a daughter and two sons, Mrs. H. P. Watkins, and John C. and W. T. Mason, who have the sympathy of the entire community. Following is a report of the coroner's jury:

We, the coroner's jury in the above matter, agree and find: That the deceased was M. B. Mason; that he came to his death on the 1st day of September, 1892, in the afternoon about 6 p. m., in Columbia county, Oregon, on a bridge of the Northern Pacific railroad across Milton creek, near Milton station by coming in contact with or being struck by a moving passenger train of said railroad company; that the said killing was caused by the carelessness and wilful negligence of the engineer in charge of said train, and we find that said engineer, whose name we cannot ascertain, is responsible for the said death, and that he is guilty of gross criminal neglect, and of manslaughter.

JESSE HENDRICKS, J. PRACHER, H. O. HOWARD, T. H. TAYLOR, JOSEPH WEAVER, I. G. WICKSTROM.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Mattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter county, Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This medicine can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases, both for children and adults. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

CLATSOP.

Reva Berkeley and Stewart were at church services last Sabbath evening on their way from Nehalem valley, to take the night boat for Portland.

Quite a group of young ladies started out on horseback one morning this week for a day's visit in the country. Two or three young men attended the crowd in a hack with more young ladies. In fact it was the young ladies day out, and they were not nearly all out either, as there were not horses and side-saddles enough. We sympathized with Charley Conyers and Beed Bryant, but they proved themselves gallant boys.

A. F. Myers and wife were at Portland last week, where Mrs. Myers remained under charge of an oculist.

The school board is wrestling with the assessment roll this week, sitting as a board of equalization.

G. W. Badger and wife were in Portland over Sunday.

E. H. Lane and family, from the Summit, spent a portion of the week in town among friends.

O. J. Bryant looked very much like pictures of old father Time, as he walked through our streets the other day carrying a sythe; but he looked a little too good natured to "cut down all, both great and small."

A safe has been placed in the office of W. H. Conyers, and will serve as a place of safety for papers accumulating there. Perhaps he intends starting a bank in addition to other business. The safe looks strong and large enough to hold considerable cash.

We noticed Hugh Murray down town recently with his boy Dan, getting his enlarged tonsils operated on. He says it has improved the boy very much.

Your correspondent here desires to mention of the expressions of sympathy for the editor in the loss of his estimable companion. Those of us who had been permitted to meet her, felt very indeed, that one so fitted for usefulness should be called away so early in life.

Rev. Frank L. Moore preached his first sermon at this place last Sunday evening. He is the newly appointed minister to this circuit from the Methodist conference, recently held in Portland.

GILLTON.

Miss Josie Duncan and Miss Vannose, of Newberg, are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

The hum of the threshing machine is with us once more, and it takes two machines to do the work this year, it would seem that this county is coming to the front in grain raising.

Miss Ella McGuire, of this place, left on Monday last for the home of her parents in Osborne, Kansas, where she expects to remain. Her many friends here were very sorry to lose her.

Mr. D. W. Richardson and wife, of Portland, and Mr. E. Searcy and family visited in this neighborhood this week.

C. W. Garrison and Emmett Stevens lately burned large slashings, and not having taken the usual precaution to move their fences, had a large amount of fence burned up.

Mr. Hawkins is very busy moving fence this week getting ready to burn his slashings. Albert Freeman is also getting ready for a big burn.

Mrs. Nichols, of Washington county, and Mrs. Millard Espey, of Portland, mother and sister of Mrs. Holce, are visiting here this week.

Maud Flagg and Daisy Beagle are visiting Miss Cloe Searcy this week.

The wood hauling season is fast drawing to a close, which will be a great relief to both men and teams, as wood hauling is considered very hard work.

Miss May Holce has been quite sick the past week, but is a little better at present.

Two young men by the name of Higgins have rented Mr. Hawkins' farm, and will soon take possession; and Mr. Jolly, the present occupant, will move with his family to Chicago their former home. We are very sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Jolly, as they have made many friends during their short stay in this neighborhood.

YANKEETOWN.

Mr. H. A. Corliss and family have left this neighborhood for La Fayette, where they intend spending the winter. They are genial neighbors and will be greatly missed.

Last Saturday Mr. Leslie Bailey gave a dancing party to his numerous friends, which was attended by most of his neighbors and several families from Houlton. Every body present claimed to have had a splendid time.

H. O. Howard has started up his mill again, and is evidently intending to make a long run.

Mrs. Sherman, who until last week resided on the Briggs place, has removed to the Plowman place.

We hear it rumored that Mr. George Masie has sold his farm here to Mr. Tarbell, a gentleman lately from Maine.

Resolutions.

The following preamble and resolutions were passed by the Odd Fellows lodge in St. Helens last Saturday night:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from earthly toils and cares, the wife of our esteemed brother, J. R. Beagle, and the news thereof having reached this lodge,

THEREFORE, Be it resolved, that we the members of St. Helens Lodge, No. 117, I. O. O. F., extend to our bereaved brother our fraternal sympathy.

School Report.

Following is the report of the Bay View school, for month ending September 2nd:

Number of days taught, 19; days attendance, 523; average daily attendance, 27.

Those not absent during the month: Floyd Puzey, Laura Puzey, Louis Puzey, Walter Bacon, Katie and Jasper Hazen. CHAS. ELLERY, Teacher.

RAINIER.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Rainier on Sunday last. The happy couple were Mr. Wm. Huycke and Miss Etta Whitney, both well known and popular members of society. Rev. C. H. Curtis pronounced the marriage ceremony at the close of the church service, in the presence of a large number of friends and neighbors. Mr. W. N. Forrester officiated as groomsmen and Miss Bessie Moeck as bridesmaid. After congratulations had been tendered, the bride and groom, accompanied by a number of friends, repaired to their future home, where an elegant luncheon had been prepared, and an informal reception was held. The house was tastefully decorated. The numerous wedding presents showed the esteem in which the young couple are held, and to say that Mr. and Mrs. Huycke have the best wishes of this entire community but mildly expresses the sentiment of all.

A Week of Prizefights.

For the first three nights of this week, commencing Monday, there has been a prizefight at the Olympic Club in New Orleans. On Monday night came the light-weight battle between Jack McLaughlin and "Billy" Myer, in which the latter was knocked out in the fifteenth round.

The next battle was between George Dixon, colored, and Jack Skelley, the bantam weight, which took place on Tuesday night for a purse of $17,500, and ended in the eighth round in favor of the negro.

The big fight of the series occurred on Wednesday night between the world's champion, John L. Sullivan and James J. Corbett, the California ex-bank clerk, and the utter surprise of millions the man who had defended the world's championship for eleven years, was knocked out in the twenty-first round by Corbett. Sullivan was "not in it" from the beginning, although Corbett could not land a knock out blow until the twenty-first round, and in fact the only knock down that Sullivan received was in the finish—the second time he was ever felled in his life. Corbett won on the fight not only the championship of the world, but a purse of $50,000 as well. On this fight there were millions of dollars wagered and the odds were 3 to 2 on Sullivan.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Edwin Ross' drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Crop-Weather Bulletin.

For the week ending Tuesday, September 6th, 1892.

Weather.—There has been very little change in the weather conditions of the past seven days, as compared with the preceding week. If anything the temperature was slightly below the average, especially on the last two days of the week, viz: the 3rd and 4th. On the latter date the first white frost of the season occurred in exposed localities of Douglas county, injuring tender vegetation to some extent. In some sections the days were very warm, but were always followed by cool nights. The partial drought of the past few weeks has remained unbroken until the 4th, but at this writing light rains are falling throughout western Oregon.

Crops.—The grain crop has all been threshed by this time. Hop picking is now in full blast in most places. Polk county farmers report that in yards sprayed with whale oil soap the lice have done very little damage. Corn in a few localities seems to have received a set-back from the cool nights. Brownsville folks claim that the largest crop of corn ever raised in the Willamette valley will be gathered this year. Reports from other sections, however, are not as encouraging by any means. The onion crop is now being pulled. The general impression seems to point to a short crop. Fall apples and pears are ripening. Potatoes must be awfully scarce this year when the same are selling at three cents a pound in some counties.

EASTERN OREGON.

Weather.—The consensus of the weekly reports from correspondents in this section is: "Fine weather for harvesting purposes and general farm work." There has been no rainfall at all during the week, but the indications are for a few scattered showers before long, and they would be very welcome at present, as not only crops would receive much benefit therefrom, but that they would clear up the smoke and dust floating in the air, and would perhaps improve the ranges. The temperatures have not been quite so high this week; the extremes have ranged from 33 to 89 degrees. A light frost is reported from Union county on the 4th; it did hardly any damage at all.

Crops.—Threshing operations continue in full activity. In portions of Grant county the wheat crop is expected to turn out almost as good as the average crop. Haying has been going on steadily; there will be an abundance of it this year. Stock is looking very well. "Potatoes are decidedly scarce," is the cry now heard everywhere except in Malheur county. Our Gilliam county correspondent writes that there is hardly a bushel of merchantable tubers in his district today. Oats are now being harvested in Sherman county, and the yield will be fairly good. Fruit is reported as ripening fast; apples especially. These are remarkably free from insects this season.

The demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is steadily growing, from the fact that all who give it a trial are pleased with the results and recommend it to their neighbors. We feel sure that the remedy cannot be recommended too highly.—Wagley & Smead, druggists, Newton, Iowa. For sale by Edwin Ross.

OBITUARY.

BEEGLE.—At the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. A. C. Archbold, in Hillsboro, on Thursday, September 1, 1892, of consumption. Mollie Archbold-Beagle, wife of J. R. Beagle, aged 21 years and 9 days.

She died, lamented in the prime of life, a devoted mother and a faithful wife. Called away when time had loosed its hold. On the fond heart, and each desire grew cold. But when, to all that knit her to her kind, she felt that death as charity can bind; Yes, all these ties the strong invisible broke, In all their strength, by one tremendous stroke. Friends, with the parents, came, their grief to blend. While round her couch stood many a youthful friend.

The first-born boy they held above the tier: He knew not grief, but cries expressed his fear: While the fond husband, listening to their tones, Swelled the full cadence of grief by groans.

Mollie C. Archbold was born in Hillsboro, Washington county, Or., August 23, 1871, was married to J. R. Beagle December 17, 1890. She immediately after the marriage, she, in company with her husband, departed for Southern California hoping to benefit her health. They remained south until the next spring, her health having considerably improved, they returned to Oregon and located in Portland, June 1, 1891. She with her husband removed to St. Helens; but during the autumn of the same year, her health completely failing, she returned to California; after spending the winter, her health improving but little she joined her husband at St. Helens, in March, 1892. A baby boy was born to her, and from that time she gradually declined in strength, and was shortly afterward removed to the home of her parents and childhood, fondly hoping that a change would be of benefit to her. This, however, was of no avail, and she passed peacefully away on September 1st, leaving a husband and a little babe about 3 months old.

Mrs. Beagle was a faithful member of the M. E. church, and her funeral services were conducted by Mrs. J. W. Spangler of that church, in Hillsboro, after which the remains were interred in the Masonic cemetery by the side of her brother who preceded her to the better world about fifteen months ago.

"She is loved, but not lost! why do we call her lost? Because we miss her from our onward road. God's unseen angel o'er our pathway crest, Looked on us all, and led her the most Straightway relieved her from life's weary load."

"She is not lost; she lives within the door That shuts out loss and every hurtful thing; With angels bright and loved ones gone before, In her Redeemer's presence evermore. With God Himself her Lord, and Judge and King."

"Yes, look upon earth's dreary, desert path! With thorns and thistles whereso'er we turn! What trials and what terrors, what wrongs and what wrath. What struggles and what strife the journey hath! She has escaped from these, and lo! we mourn!"

"We should not sorrow thus; death makes no breach In love and sympathy, hope and trust; No outward sign our hearts can reach. Yet there's an inward spiritual speech That greets us still, though she lies in the dust."

"It bids us do the work that she laid down; Take up the song where she broke off the strain; And journey thus until we reach the heavenly town Where are laid up our treasures and our crown, And our lost, loved one will be found again."

A Reward of $500.

Will be paid for any case of Rheumatism which cannot be cured by Dr. Drummond's Relieving Remedy. This offer is made in good faith by the proprietors, and there is no reasonable excuse for any one to suffer longer. Any ordinary case will be cured by one bottle. In addition to the reward for difficult cases, the money is always refunded where the remedy fails to cure. The price of a bottle is $5, and that is the cost of a cure. Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50, Maiden Lane, New York. Agents Wanted.

MARRIED.

DODSON—BEE.—At the residence of J. B. Doan, Rainier, on Sunday, September 4, Justice Doan officiating, Mr. William R. Dodson and Miss Carrie L. Bee.

BORN.

KING.—At Astoria, August 24th, to the wife of Ellis King, a son.

FOUND.

Adrift in the Columbia river last June a black skiff containing loggers' tools and time book. The owner can have same on applying at Bourne's landing.
